

PRO CIRCUIT

PRIVATEER PAYDAY

We are pleased to announce “The Pro Circuit Privateer Payday” contest, presented by Racer X Illustrated. As a former mechanic for a few privateers in my time, I know competing at the highest level of motocross isn’t easy physically, mentally, or—most importantly—financially. That’s why we’ve developed this contest.

We’re offering one lucky professional privateer an all-expenses paid trip to a round of the 2009 Lucas Oil AMA Pro Motocross Championship. We’ll cover your expenses for a weekend of racing and give you a free Pro Circuit exhaust for your steed! Also (and I think this is the best part), you’ll get my undivided attention all weekend! (Unless Tim Ferry needs something, of course.) I’ll be there to pit board for you, work on your bike, make you a sandwich—whatever you need from me. I’ll use all my Summercross- and 2000 High Point National-win skills to help you have your best weekend ever! I’ll reach into my bag of tricks and do whatever it takes to help you reach your goal. I’ll be Mickey and you’ll be Rocky!

Think about how much better you’ll do with no gas, food, lodging, or entry expenses to worry about. Think about how fast your bike will be with a new Pro Circuit exhaust! There is a catch, though: You have to write me a 250-word essay on why you should be selected. Make it funny, make it pitiful—whatever you feel you need to do. Also, you have to be able to run the Pro Circuit exhaust, so no big-time sponsored riders here, folks! Thanks to Pro Circuit and Racer X for this opportunity ... now get cracking on those essays! Send them to matthes@raceronline.com and we’ll announce a winner after Millville.
